ADVERTISED BRANDS ARE OF PROVEN QUALITY

When a manufacturer spends huge sums for nationally advertising his product, you may be sure he has standardized his processes to eliminate all chance of poor quality.

One shipment of lower-than-standard quality would destroy the confidence built up by large amounts spent on the selling campaign. Therefore, each unit must be right.

Always featured at the

KNIGHTHOOD OF THE SKIES

Somewhere flying homeward from battle—engine stuttering—battered but still jaunty—a plane wings its way. On its sleek sides its squadron insignia embodies in bright colors the dauntless spirit of its young and gallant crew.

The various squadrons of our Army, Navy and Marine Corps have their own insignia, each as distinctive, as fanciful, as devil-may-care as the tastes of the individuals in the squadron dictate.

Designs run the gamut from the grim symbolism of Fighter Squadron 10's diving skeleton to the comical figure of the 311th Bombardment squadron's Disney-like blue goose with bombs tucked neatly under its wings. All the insignia, however, reflect the vigorous and sturdy individualism of Uncle Sam's hardy young flyers.

FATHER'S DAY

The selection of General Eisenhower as America's number one father for Father's Day of 1943 is particularly fitting, not only as a tribute to a great job which one father has done, in his capacity as commander-in-chief of all United Nations' forces in North Africa, but also because it is a reminder of the sacrifices being made by many other fathers in carrying on this global struggle to a victorious conclusion.

This year Father's Day has a special significance, for the war has brought a keener realization of just what it means to be a father. No man can watch his son march off to war or leave his youngsters behind without feeling keenly the call his country must make upon him.

When the last war came to an end, many fathers breathed a prayer of thanksgiving that their sons would never have to experience what they had gone through, because the "war to end wars" supposedly had been won! Now they know that wars can only cease permanently when the fight is waged untiringly in times of peace against the forces of hatred, greed and intolerance which would undermine the peace. And they are coming to realize more than ever that this fight must be waged first within their own hearts—for the thoughts of each help to form the world pattern.

When peace is lived again, Father's Day will mean what it should—Dad and his family together, in pride and happiness.

READING & WRITING

BY Edwin Seaver AND Robin McKoun

ONE of the most unique story tellers of our times is a Danish baroness who writes under the name of Isak Dinesen. "Winter's Tales," a collection of her strange and masterful stories, is a Book-of-the-Month Club selection for June.

ISAK DINESEN

Isak Dinesen is still living in Denmark.

Getting her manuscript out of this country and into the hands of her American publishers was a matter of many months. The last communication from her to her publisher read: "It is out of the question that I communicate with you further or read proof of the book. I therefore place my interests entirely in your hands."

She has had an unusual life. She grew up, she says, "near the sea in the country." In 1914, she married her cousin, Baron Blixen, and went with him to British East Africa, where her family bought a big coffee plantation for them. Later, she took over the management of the farm herself—ran it for ten years until in 1931, the coffee prices dropped and she was forced to give it up. Then, much against her wishes, she went back to Denmark.

Isak Dinesen, incidentally, has a batting average of 1,000 with the Book-of-the-Month Club. Her two previous books—"Out of Africa" and "Seven Gothic Tales"—were also Club selections.

Dr. F. H. Albee, one of the most famous bone surgeons in the world, tells an amusing story in his autobiography "A Surgeon's Fight to Rebuild Men." It seems once a well-meaning lady came to his office, demanding a personal interview. With the air of doing him a great favor, she presented him with a large paper package. She was so thrilled with his wonderful work, she told him, that she had brought him some bones to help him out. He was prepared for a batch of old meat bones—which the uninitiated might think would be useful—but not for the contents of the package. When he opened it he found she had brought him a number of whalebones from some ancient corsets!

Husbands who lament they have extravagant wives may take comfort in the fact that their plight is not a new one. As early as 1789, relate Frank Monaghan and Marvin Lowenthal in their book, "This Was New York" so elaborate were the fashions for New York women that one French visitor was moved to comment: "Luxury forms already, in this town, a class of men very dangerous in society—I mean bachelors. The expensive upkeep of women makes men dread matrimony."

FUNCTIONAL SWIMMING—The nation is taking to functional swimming. Devised by the American Red Cross Water Safety Service for the self-protection of America's fighting men, the functional swimming course is being used extensively by the armed forces. Now it is available to millions of civilians including those of pre-induction age. This mammoth training program, already under way, is carried on by an army of 15,000 Red Cross Water Safety instructors. Functional swimming skills are based upon the demonstrated needs of global warfare which call for much overseas transportation. Troops are sometimes obliged to swim great distances or remain afloat for long periods with full equipment.

"Shirt tail" life saving is an important part of the course. It teaches the swimmer to keep afloat by ingenious use of clothing and equipment. Top, left: Because its content is buoyant, the regulation 50-lb. pack weighs nothing in the water and will keep the wearer afloat for some time. Top, right: Before jumping into the water these men pulled their shirts out at the waist and scooped them full of air in the descent which made them buoyant. Above: The three men in this photo have removed their trousers, tied the ends, inflated them through the waist opening by swinging them overhead and blowing in additional air. Crooking an arm through the "v" of the inverted trousers they are able to remain afloat with ease.

Homemakers' Guide

Around the table with a pound of meat

It's quite a trick to make a pound of meat go all around the table and satisfy all the appetites. However, it's been done for generations in foreign countries, and some of the creations have become masterpieces of the culinary world. The secret, of course, is to use the meat in tiny pieces, so that the flavor is distributed throughout the dish. Nutritionally, it's sound practice and one we can well afford to adopt these days.

CHOP SUEY—Cut meat into tiny pieces, brown in hot fat, add sliced celery, onions, shredded cabbage (in lieu of bean sprouts), and seasonings to taste. Add a little water, cover pan and simmer for 15 minutes or until vegetables are tender. Thicken the broth slightly with flour or cornstarch. Serve over steaming, fluffy rice.

CREPES DE BOEUF (French) Add chopped, cooked beef to pancake batter. Make large, thin pancakes. Spread with butter or substitute, sprinkle with parsley, roll up and serve plain or with gravy or sauce.

NOODLE DELIGHT—Sauté small pieces of meat and mix with cooked noodles, cooked green beans or okra, and wedges of fresh tomato. Pour in greased casserole and bake in moderate oven (350° F.) for 15 minutes or until heated through and flavors are blended.

MEAT PIE—Dice a pound of meat and prepare as for stew, using several vegetables cut in uniform pieces. Thicken gravy slightly and pour stew into greased casserole. Cover top with pastry or with mashed potato or cornmeal crust. Bake in hot oven (400° F.) for 20 minutes or until well browned.

CREAMED GROUND HAMBURGER—Brown a pound of ground beef or pork and cook until meat separates. Blend in 4 tbsps. flour, add 2½ cups milk and cook until thickened, about 10 minutes. Serve hot over toast, hot biscuits or baked potato.

CHILI CON CARNE—Brown a pound of diced or ground meat with chopped onion. Add 3 cups tomatoes, cooked or fresh, season with chili powder, garlic, salt and pepper and simmer for 15 minutes. Add 3 cups cooked beans, any kind, and heat thoroughly.

VICTORY GOULASH—Brown stew meat, lamb or beef, then cook in water until tender, adding sliced onions, tomato wedges, celery, fresh corn, peas or string beans. Serve with boiled potatoes.

2. If your application papers are satisfactory, you'll receive free transportation to the nearest Office of Naval Officer Procurement. There you'll be interviewed and arrange to take the aptitude test.

3. The Navy does not sound like a boring job. You'll be able to see the world and meet interesting people.

5. Off for training school! The Navy takes care of all expenses. Meals in the dining car. A pullman berth for overnight travel. And you'll find comfortable quarters ready for you when you arrive.

6. Yes, you'll feel like a young woman. You'll be able to see the world and meet interesting people.

8. At training school you'll follow an interesting schedule. Athletics, games, recreation with friendly companions are yours to enjoy in addition to the valuable training under expert Navy teachers.

9. And of the service, you'll be in the exciting war.

MILO'S MARKET DE LuxE

6315 MISSION ST.

FEATURED MEATS ARE CHOICE MEATS AT MILO'S

At Milo's you'll find we feature the better grades of meat—that's been our long-time policy. It's not accidental that Daly City housewives have come to depend on us for choice cuts of fine quality meats.

And our large volume permits us to have a full selection of the various cuts and kinds for your approval. For instance, even under present difficult market conditions, we are able to furnish our customers with an adequate supply of good beef.

Whatever your meat problems, bring them to Milo's — we are prepared and anxious to help solve them. Whether it's some kind of fresh meat, or flavorful cured ham or bacon, you'll find you

SAVE AT MILO'S

THAT'S ALL THE POINTS YOU GET!

No matter what your financial status, rich or poor, you cannot buy more rationed foods than your equal share. Your allotment is no more than your neighbor's, whether he is a banker or a laborer.

So you must spend points wisely—plan your purchases to provide well balanced meals throughout the rationing period. That's where a really BIG food shopping center like Milo's can be of most service.

Let us advise how to best care for your family's needs.

Our food shops are all combined in one big, modern center, saving time and extra steps. All departments are here — quality groceries, select poultry and fresh fish, seasonal fresh vegetables and fruits, and a really big selection of kinds and cuts of fresh and cured meats.

Stretch your food points at MILO'S!

FARM - FRESH FRUITS AND VEGETABLES

Give your family the finest natural foods in their most healthful form—crisp, nutritious vegetables and energy-packed fruits, fresh from the growers' markets.

With the produce season at its height, your selection of these foods is almost unlimited. Practically every type of vegetable and fruit is now featured in our big market.

Save your ration points by purchasing these foods fresh — and conserve processed goods for the use of our armed forces all over the world.

HOUSEWIVES—vary your menus and stretch meat allowances by serving our select POULTRY and FRESH FISH often. Your family (and your budget) will appreciate the change in fare.

If you are aiding the government's program of food production at home by raising Poultry, Rabbits, Pigeons or livestock, be sure you are doing it as well as possible.

For best results, use ALBERS or A-1 specialized feeds to help them through the various stages of growth, and for maximum egg, milk or meat production.

Some of the many feed mixes designed for specific results include: Baby Chick Starter, Growing Chick Mash, Chick Scratch, Start To Finish Mash, Utility Egg Mash, Laying Mash, Milk Control Mash, Calf Food, Rabbit Pellets and Pigeon Feed.

We also stock fancy new green Alfalfa Hay, whole and milled grains, brick salt, oyster shell, charcoal, poultry and livestock remedies.

LUCCA MEAT MARKET

HOURS: 9 A. M. to 6 P. M.

You can protect your family's allowance of ration points, and your household budget of dollars and cents, by making your purchases at LUCCA'S MEAT DEPARTMENT. Our long-time policy of looking after the best interests of Daly City and Colma families is all to your advantage.

DIFT

With its essential food elements, meat is a necessity for everyone, especially in these trying times. Meat promotes growth, strength, vitality and energy so sorely needed for keeping America strong on the home front.

To assure your family of getting maximum benefit from its allowance under the rationing plan, spend your points for quality meats, always featured at the FARMERS MARKET.
